Headline:
Mainly dry with some good sunny spells developing.

Today:
Cloud and patchy drizzle, especially over northern and eastern Aberdeenshire, clearing through the morning, otherwise a dry day with some good spells of sunshine developing. Feeling warm in the sunshine inland but cooler towards the coast with a northerly breeze. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening with some late sunshine then long clear spells overnight. However cloudier conditions may return to eastern coasts through the early hours. Chilly in sheltered western parts. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Any cloud towards the coasts breaking up, otherwise a dry day with long spells of sunshine developing. Feeling warm inland with mainly light winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Still some warm sunshine through Friday and the weekend. However it gradually becomes more unsettled with showers becoming more frequent, especially later Sunday when they may be heavy.
